

SIR PRISE: Surprise?

This time the cast oblige with a short gasp of surprise.

ARTHUR: No, we are not, not really. We have all known you are not a true knight of Camelot for ages now. But please tell us why did you have need of a disguise here amongst your friends?

SIR PRISE: I'm sorry for lying to you all. King Uther would never let a girl be one of his knights. So, I disguised myself so that I could be one. I am as brave and strong as any other one of the knights.

ARTHUR: Well, I am not my father and yes you have proved yourself as brave as any of the other knights of Camelot. So, tell me brave knight what is your real name?

SIR PRISE: It is Sally Bird your majesty.

ARTHUR: Well Miss Bird please kneel before me.

SIR PRISE kneels in front of the king.

ARTHUR: (With sword in hand) Well I can't make you a knight, so I shall make you a lady by royal order. (Dabs the sword on each of her shoulders) Arise Lady Bird. Now you can stop pretending and be yourself from now on.

The cast clap and cheer.

SIR PRISE: Thank you your majesty and I will be myself from now on.
